NEWBORN

PRICING & INFORMATION GUIDE

welcome!

Congratulations on your little one, mama!
Those tiny hands & feet. That sweet mouth. The most precious eyelashes. Your baby is perfect. You don't ever want to forget how tiny she is.

That's where I come in.
As a mom, I understand what it's like to be overwhelmed with love for your baby. As time flies and schedules fill up and you are faced with the crazy reality of being a parent, it can be easy to forget to appreciate the little things.
Their tiny fingers and toes, that first smile, first laugh. I encourage you to soak in every moment - and to let me help capture it. Photographs are truly the only way to preserve those precious memories.

hi! i'm jessica.

I'm travel obsessed.

I love animals, all things Disney, anything sweet and being outdoors.

I'm a momma.

I'm the perfect photographer for your new baby- from birth to one year.

I believe everyone should have beautiful photos that capture the special moments and people in their lives.

I strive for genuine smiles, candid moments and true emotion in my images. Your photos shouldn't just be beautiful... they should capture the very essence of your family.

i can't wait to meet you!

pricing & info

Your newborn session will last up to two hours. I provide all the props necessary for your session. If you would like, you may bring 1-3 personal items for me to use. This isn't required, and remember, less is more. Please don't bring outfits, they generally don't photograph well. If you see a specific prop in my portfolio that you would like in your images, please let me know ahead of time.

Due to the unpredictable nature of newborn photography, I'm only able to take a limited number of babies per month. Please request availability on my website, and if I am available, you will receive the newborn agreement. Once your baby is born, please text me the day of delivery or the next day so I can get your session scheduled. Your session will take place within 2 weeks of your baby's birth.

Your session will be very relaxed. I plan for plenty of time to feed and soothe your baby.

your session includes

- 2 hour photoshoot
- Parents & siblings may join at no additional cost
- Props & accessories included

Session Fee: $150

*The session fee covers my time and talent, the use of variety of props and wraps, one complimentary reveal session and 3 digital images..

If you are currently between 20-35 weeks pregnant, you are eligible to make a reservation.

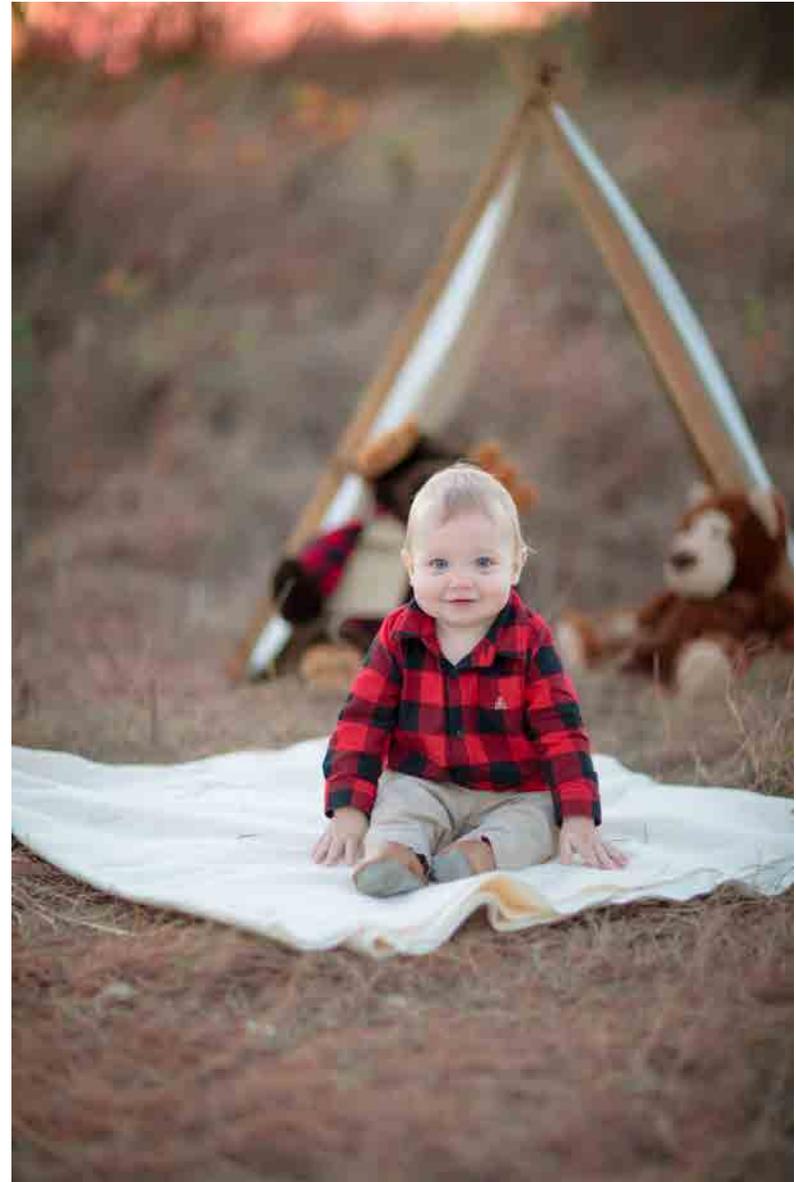

The reveal session

Once your images are ready, we'll schedule your reveal session. (usually 2-3 weeks after your session.) At this session you'll be able to see your images, and make a decision if you would like to purchase additional images, prints, wall art, albums and gifts

There is no obligation to purchase anything additional at the reveal session.

Most clients spend $250 at the reveal session.

All digital images are complimentary on print or product purchases of $350 or more.
